Plaintiff Accelerated Analytics, LLC (“Plaintiff”) and Defendant Askuity, Inc. (“Defendant”)(Defendant and Plaintiff collectively, the “Parties”) are currently discussing a resolution of this matter.<sup>1</sup> In order to facilitate settlement discussions, the Parties have agreed to, and are moving for, a November 5, 2015 due date upon which Defendant must file its response to Plaintiff’s Complaint. This date is the same one upon which Defendant’s Memorandum in Opposition to Plaintiff’s Motion for Preliminary Injunction is due, and is being sought in order to avoid Defendant having to expend resources that could impact a resolution of the lawsuit.

Because the Parties are seeking the November 5, 2015 date in order to facilitate on-going settlement discussions, the Parties’ Joint Motion is being filed with good cause and is not being filed to unduly delay this matter.

<sup>1</sup>Plaintiff indicated that it had perfected service of the Complaint on Defendant. Defendant also had returned a waiver of service to Plaintiff. In an effort to address any confusion on the due date for the response to the Complaint, the Parties have now agreed to the requested November 5, 2015 due date.

Respectfully submitted,
